WYANT'S IMPORTANT CULTURAL HINTS

Please cooperate by reading and following the simple planting directions accompanying each order, even if you have planted Roses before.

Selection of Location

In selecting the location for your Rose-bed, it is not important whether your plants are to get morning or afternoon sunlight, but that they do get at least a half day of sun. Part shade is even preferable to a full day of sunlight in an established bed.

Tree Roots

Select a location where tree roots cannot interfere with your Rose roots. It is surprising how quickly tree roots will find a Rose-bed and fill it, consuming food and moisture intended for the plants. If tree roots are present, dig a trench around the bed as deep as the tree roots extend, thereby cutting off all that might attempt to enter the bed. This trench may be filled in again immediately, and should be dug around the Rose-bed every year if the tree roots prove bothersome.

Plant Early

The best time in the Spring to plant Wyant Roses is just as soon as the soil is workable. The larger part of the gardening public wait until the warm, sunshiny days of Spring to start their planting. This is too late to get best results. In this latitude late March is an ideal time, and planting as late as May seldom gives the results you anticipate. Fall planting is usually even safer than Spring planting, but if you can plant in early Spring there is no use losing a whole season of enjoyment by waiting until Fall, for early Spring-planted Hybrid Teas start to bloom in June of the same year.

Soils

It is best to keep away from either extremely heavy or extremely light soil; loam soils will have more food in them. Heavy soils can be improved and made lighter by the addition of peat or humus and agricultural slag. Peat or humus will also improve light soils and enable them to retain more moisture. The best soil you can get is the best soil for Roses.

The pH of Soils

The acidity and alkalinity of soils is designated by pH. It has been found that Roses are very tolerant. They will grow in a soil from 4.5 pH up to 8 pH, but the best growing conditions seem to be found in a soil that is neutral or slightly acid—that is, around 6 to 7 pH. Lime in almost any form can be used to make soils more alkaline, and sulphur to make them more acid.

Planting

If you want successful Roses, plant the bushes close together, so that the foliage will keep the ground shaded and cool—15 to 18 inches is the rule for the Hybrid Teas, the taller varieties being placed for the best effect.

Instead of waiting until the bushes arrive, it is better to spade the soil 15 to 18 inches deep several weeks in advance adding plenty of peat or humus. And if drainage is needed, the bed should be tilled and surplus water carried away. Guard against the roots drying out from exposure to sun, wind or freezing during planting. Do not use chemical fertilizer when planting Wyant Roses; only bone-meal and rotted manure or peat may be used at planting time. Whether planting in Spring or Fall, mound soil high around the branches immediately after planting to help prevent the stems from withering during the time the roots are becoming established.

Feeding

In the Spring, when the bank of soil is removed, apply Wyant Rose Food to the established plants but not to newly set Roses. Wyant Rose Food is recommended, because it is of organic composition rather than chemical, and even after long usage does not make the soil toxic, nor burn, as a chemical fertilizer will. Proper fertilizing will produce much bloom, so during June or early July make another application to new as well as to established Roses, and then again in the latter part of August, but not after September 1. Each time, apply about a handful to medium strong bushes, less to weaker, and more to stronger plants.

Pruning

When a Rose is set out in the Spring, shorten the strong branches to 12 inches, and the weaker a little more. Heap the soil as high as the branches are pruned, to protect against drying out, until the roots become established. Remove this bank of soil when the shoots start, so that the bud or crown is about level with the soil surface.

The only Fall pruning recommended is shortening tall bushes down to about 2 feet, so that they will not wind whip. The real pruning for established bushes is given in the Spring when the bank of soil is removed. At this time remove dead wood from the Hybrid Teas and cut the strong branches down to the highest big live bud. Shorten or remove weak growth. After the big June bloom, if there is a lot of small twiggy growth on the top of the plant, it is well to cut it off, down to some good strong growth and just above some well-developed eye.

The weak branches of Polyanthas should be cut down and the strong ones shortened one-half. Hybrid Perpetuals can be shortened about one-third and from Climbers the dead wood should be removed. In July, after the first big burst of bloom is over, you may prune Climbers, but pruning is not recommended unless the plant is too large for the trellis.

Watering

If the soil around your Roses is kept cultivated, it will seldom be in need of watering. However, during an extended drought, soak the ground thoroughly for hours and then do not repeat for a week. Stop all watering and cultivating about the first of September.

An application of peat or other porous material put on in May and left the rest of the season helps to retain moisture and keeps the soil cooler and in better condition for Rose growing. It may also help in disease control.

Suckers

Suckers are the wild shoots that occasionally spring up from below the bud. They can be distinguished from flowering shoots by the small, heavily veined leaves and often by the thorns on the stems, being entirely different from those on the blooming stems. Do not call every stem with seven leaflets wild, as many of the flowering stems also have seven leaflets. A sucker only comes from below the bud. As soon as a sucker is discovered, cut it off clean from the main plant below the ground, where it originates, without leaving the stub which would send up more shoots.

Disease and Insect Control

A little attention and care will remedy the few diseases and insects that attack Rose plants. Dusting is preferable to spraying, for it is easier and quicker.

Spray or dust aphids, the small green lice that appear about the tips of the shoots, with insecticides containing nicotine or rotenone. Spray or dust worms and insects that eat leaves, with rotenone or with a poison. Both above pests can be controlled with Wyant Rose Dust.

Rose chafers and Japanese beetles can be killed by dusting chlordane over them. Place a drop of shellac or thick white lead on all cut ends in the Spring, when pruning is done, to keep out the carpenter bee, which makes a hole in the exposed pith.

Prevent black-spot and mildew by dusting with any of Wyant's Dusts, beginning as soon as the leaves come out and continuing about every week, and more often in rainy weather. Apply a light, even coat with a gun on a calm evening before the dew, if possible, thereby protecting the foliage so that it will be retained until frost.

Winter Protection

The time-honored method of Winter protection is putting a bank of soil around the branches of Hybrid Teas in the late Fall before severe freezing occurs. However, Summer protection against diseases is more important in keeping a Rose alive. If a plant goes into Winter in a good hardened condition having retained its foliage until freezing, it will live through the Winter in fine shape even without abundant covering. Therefore, keep your Roses healthy in the Summer and forget your Winter protection.

HYBRID TEA ROSES

These are the monthly or everblooming Roses that are to be found in most Rose gardens. Hybridizers are turning out so many, many new varieties in fascinating tones that it is difficult for the average busy gardener to keep up with them. We are confident that our list includes the very best of both old and new sorts and that you will find just the Roses you want and will be successful in growing them. Select now the ones you want to plant this Spring.

Roses bearing this symbol are winners of an award given by All-America Rose Selections. This means they have been grown in competition with other new Roses in test gardens across the country and have given a superior performance in the opinion of the expert judges who determine the award winners.

The Polyantha and Floribunda Roses bloom almost continuously. They are very fool-proof, for they require little or no Winter protection and are quite free from disease. Their flowers are borne in clusters. Set the plants 18 to 24 inches apart.

Hybrid Perpetual ROSES . .

PAUL NEYRON. $1.50

FRAU KARL DRUSCHKI. $1.50

Hybrid Perpetuals or "June bloomers" generally burst forth into a marvelous display of bloom in June. Many will bloom again later in the season. Their flowers on the whole are more richly fragrant than any other class and are of very large size. The plants are too large to fit in a Rose-bed of Hybrid Teas but are more fool-proof and long-lived. Plant them in the back-ground and in shrub borders. Many of the strongest growers can be trained as pillars.

DRUSCHKI RUBRA. One of the more modern Hybrid Perpetuals (1929) but originated by the same venerable German, P. Lambert, who originated Frau K. Druschki. Lots of good big red blooms with an old-Rose fragrance. $1.50 each; 3 for $4.00.

FRAU KARL DRUSCHKI. A very strong, tall grower which blooms sparsely during the Summer and Fall after bearing bountifully in the Spring. Pure white when open, with prominent yellow stamens but no fragrance. Very large, attractive flowers. $1.50 each; 3 for $4.00.

GENERAL JACQUEMINOT (General Jack for short). One of the greatest favorites of the old Roses. It has large, very double and very fragrant, deep red blooms mostly in June. $1.50 each; 3 for $4.00.

GEORG ARENDS. The charming perfect rose-pink blooms make it greatly esteemed. Flowers are high centered and especially well formed. $1.50 each; 3 for $4.00.

MRS. JOHN LAING. You can't forget the delicious fragrance of these large, full, double, soft pink, cupped blooms. The two-tone pink flowers come occasionally in Summer and abundantly in June. $1.50 each; 3 for $4.00.

MRS. R. G. S. CRAWFORD. Large, full cupped, rosy pink blooms with outer petals shaded flesh. Very rich fragrance. Vigorous grower and abundant bloomer. $1.50 each; 3 for $4.00.

PAUL NEYRON. The largest pink Rose, with almost thornless stems. Blooms abundantly in June and sparingly in late Summer. Very little fragrance. $1.50 each; 3 for $4.00.

ULRICH BRUNNER. Large, globular, cherry-red blooms, always refreshing and very lasting. $1.50 each; 3 for $4.00.

Tree Roses

When Tree Roses are planted at appropriate spots they give an accent and atmosphere of distinction. Their strong, 3½-foot stems and good big tops, bloom more and better than the bush Roses, make a great sight throughout the season.

In planting, wrap the stem and branches with burlap or moss and keep it moist. After the plant is growing, remove the protection gradually.

For Winter protection Tree Rose roots should be loosened on one side so they can be laid down and the roots, stem, and top completely covered over with soil.

A HIGH-QUALITY FERTILIZER

The organic fertilizers in Wyant Rose Food last longer and are safer than the commonly used chemicals. We tried different ones for several years and finally decided that this food is better than anything else.

AN ORGANIC FOOD

Wyant Rose Food is made up of a combination of organic foods that are a perfect balance for Rose growth. The analysis is 7-8-5 but that is not as important as the fact that this food makes stronger, healthier bushes which produce more and better Roses.

NO FILLER

Wyant Rose Food contains no filler. Every particle of it can be used by the plant. It is prepared especially for Rose bushes but it can be used to advantage on other growing plants. Instructions for use with each package.

RED SPIDERS

These minute, almost invisible insects get onto the undersides of leaves in immense numbers starting at the beginning of hot weather, usually in June. They cause the leaves to turn yellow and drop off, from the bottom of the plant, up.

Niagamite (Aramite) is a safe and effective control. We do not mix it with our dusts for it loses its strength in a short time when mixed, but you can mix it right in your dust gun. Use $\frac{1}{4}$ lb. Aramate to $\frac{3}{4}$ lb. of either of our dusts. (Our 1 qt. gun $\frac{3}{4}$ full holds about $\frac{3}{4}$ lb. of dust. To this, add $\frac{1}{4}$ lb. or 5 heaping Tablespoons of Aramite.) Use at regular dusting times until the Red Spiders leave, generally in September. 4 lbs. \$3.85.

KILL JAP BEETLES

Shake Chlorodane, a fine white powder, from a sifter can onto blossoms and beetles. It kills. Also dust it onto lawn to control the beetle grubs there. 1 lb. can 75c.

Remove Winter Protection Early Enough To Use

LIME-SULPHUR

A thorough sprinkling of the soil in the early spring before the leaves appear, with about 1 pound of Lime-Sulphur to 4 gallons of water, helps greatly to prevent spread of the disease spores and makes the prevention of black-spot easier. Sprinkle the dormant plants, soil and even the grass paths surrounding the bed. First, thoroughly clean up all rubbish and old leaves. The sprinkling should be done when the temperature is above 40°. One pound is sufficient for about 50 Roses.

1-lb. can 75c; 5-lb. can $2.65, postpaid

WYANT DUSTS

All-in-One

For the greatest satisfaction and more thrilling blossoms, be sure to buy WYANT'S SPECIALLY PREPARED ROSE DUSTS. Don't let disease ruin your garden.

Wyant Dusts control all the important pests without further aids and without harming foliage. They are a wonderful time-saver for all gardeners. Wyant Dusts are especially compounded to make them much less likely to burn than ordinary dusts under trying conditions. They are easily and quickly used dry in a dust gun.

Wyant Dusts can be relied upon to produce satisfactory control of most pests on Roses and other flowers and vegetables. They are best applied in the evening when the air is calm, before the dew comes and about once a week.

10 lbs. for 50 to 75 Roses per season

25 lbs. for 150 to 200 Roses per season

1. WYANT ROSE DUST WITH FERMATE

Where black-spot disease has been a special problem, use Wyant Rose Dust with Fermate. Be conscientious by giving timely and thorough dustings and you, like many others, can successfully grow Roses without serious trouble. It also helps to control mildew. Use this highly efficient dust.

4 lbs. $2.20; 10 lbs. $5.15; 25 lbs. $12.50, postpaid

2. WYANT ROSE DUST

The most economical and effective all-in-one dust. Should be used on Roses, as well as on all garden flowers and vegetables that are attacked by either diseases or insects. 4 lbs. $1.85; 10 lbs. $4.40; 25 lbs. $10.00, postpaid.

3. WYANT PARATHION DUST

For hard-to-control insects such as Japanese beetles, rose bugs and red spider, this new material is unsurpassed. It does everything and more too, than we thought DDT was going to do. Our mixture is also a fungicide that prevents diseases just as well as our other dusts. Extreme care must be used not to get it on yourself or other people. 4 lbs. $2.75; 10 lbs. $6.60; 25 lbs. $15.50, postpaid.

WYANT DUST GUN

Holds about 1 quart of dust, has a 24-inch extension with a curved nozzle, and is so well constructed that it should last you as long as you raise Roses. It shoots the dust in a cloud onto the undersides of the leaves and spreads evenly and economically on all leaf surfaces. Any of our dusts may be left in the Gun without harm.

1-quart Gun (without handle). $2.15 each, postpaid.

For gardens of 75 or more Roses I recommend our 2-quart Gun (as illustrated) 48 inches long overall. $4.25 each, postpaid.
